

Hefty Seed Company is inviting an ambitious and successful Sales Representative to join our team in Centerville, SD. If you are interested in a fast-paced and exciting work environment with a wildly successful and rapidly expanding organization we are the company for you.

Since 1969 we have grown our company from a small family business into one of the largest Ag retailers in the nation. We have maintained that same small family business culture as we value our employees and believe family is first.

Our sales agronomists are the highest paid in the industry. They also enjoy the best training program in agriculture today, an outstanding benefit package, no custom application or grain handling, and Sundays off.

Requirements: A positive attitude.

Experience in any type of ag-related sales.

A commitment to excellent customer service.

Excellent interpersonal and communication skills.

Willingness to learn.

Ability to work as part of a team.

Please send resumes to Alicia.cady@heftyseed.com
